GOING FURTHER · NOTES OUTSIDE THE CHORD · LEARN

Notes outside the chord

REMEMBER A note outside the chord moves by step: into the chord, out of it, or both.

1 In or out?

★☆☆

The chord is C: C, E and G. Write in or out under each note. The first is done.

NOTE	C	D	E	F	G	A	B
In or out?	in

2 Match the name

★☆☆

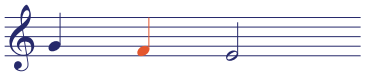

Write the name: passing note, auxiliary note, appoggiatura, suspension or anticipation. The first is done.

HOW IT MOVES	ITS NAME
steps between two chord notes	passing note steps out and straight back to the same note lands on the strong beat and leans, then steps into the chord is held over from the last chord, then falls by step is a note of the next chord, sounded early

3 Name the red note

★★☆

The chord is C each time. Name the red note.

A

B

C

4 True or false?

★☆☆

Circle T or F.

A note outside the chord is a wrong note.	T	F
A passing note moves by step.	T	F
An auxiliary note comes back to the note it started on.	T	F
A suspension arrives before its chord.	T	F

Answers: 1 in, out, in, out, in, out, out · 2 passing note, auxiliary note, appoggiatura, suspension, anticipation · 3 A passing (F), B auxiliary (D), C appoggiatura (B, on the beat, up to C) · 4 F, T, T, F.

Date _____

GOING FURTHER · NOTES OUTSIDE THE CHORD · USE

Find them, write them

REMEMBER Find the chord first. Every tune note that is not in it is a note outside the chord.

1 Find them in a tune

★★☆

The chord is C for both bars. Circle each note outside the chord, then name it below.

NOTE	ITS NAME
D	passing note

2 Write the missing note

★★☆

Write the note that fits. The chord is C. The first is done.

TUNE	THE MISSING NOTE IS…	LETTER
E · ? · C	a passing note	D
G · ? · G	an auxiliary note, above
C · ? · C	an auxiliary note, below

3 In your own piece

★★☆

Find two notes outside the chord in a piece you play.

BAR	CHORD	NOTE	ITS NAME

4 Late or early?

★★☆

Late (a suspension) or early (an anticipation)? The first is done.

WHAT HAPPENS	LATE OR EARLY?	ITS NAME
The chords go F, then C. The tune holds F into the C chord, then falls to E.	late	suspension
The chords go G, then C. The tune plays C just before the C chord.
The chords go C, then G. The tune holds C into the G chord, then falls to B.

Answers: 1 D and F: passing notes · 2 D, A, B · 3 check with your teacher · 4 late, suspension; early, anticipation; late, suspension.

Date _____