SAMPLE 4 · NOT ON THE SITE

White walls, lines only

1. No beige. White paper everywhere; the wainscoting stays only as lines -- the picture frames, panels, chair rail, cornice and the chequered floor.
2. A grand piano in the room, lid up on its stick.
3. The bow tie leads. No ribbon over the portrait; the butler's bow tie is pink.
4. Five butlers to choose from (sheet 2) and four colour ideas (sheets 3-4).

CHESS IN THE LESSON, LATER

With a real board and pieces: lay the board on its side as a giant staff (the King on the F line, the Queen on the G line, Clara the pawn on middle C) · the bishop game: skips stay on one colour, steps change it · Clara's journey: one square a chapter, on a board in the studio.

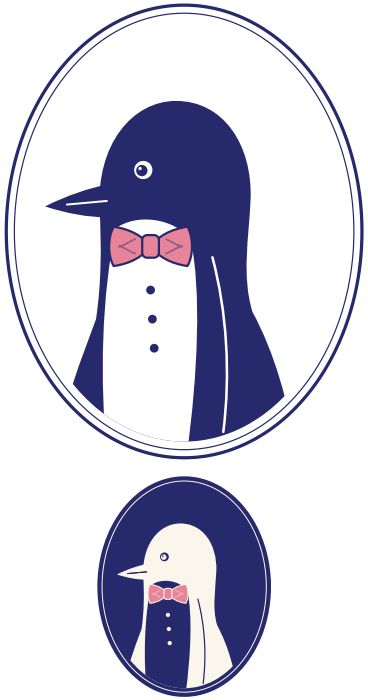

Does the butler have to be a rabbit?

Five candidates, all in tails with a pink bow tie; light for the pages, dark for screens.

The rabbit

The one you know: quick and on time (the watch chain), straight out of a Victorian storybook.

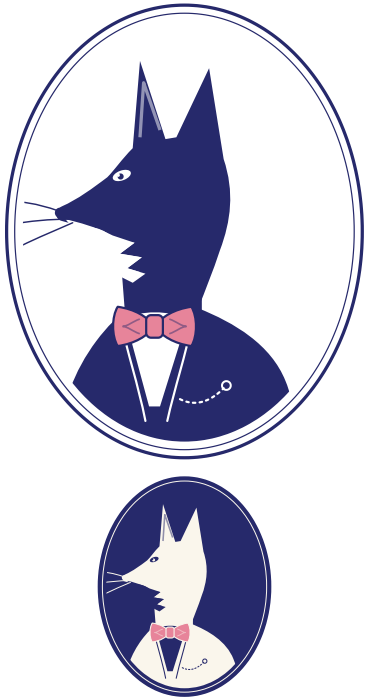

The penguin

Born in black and white, like the keys and the board -- and already in tails. The most natural butler.

The owl

The wise night-time tutor in spectacles: watches closely, reads carefully.

The fox

Clever and quick, and the most grown-up of the five; his colour sits next to coral.

The cat

Soft paws, a gentle touch -- legato. Cats and pianos have always gone together.

Colour ideas: a tidy base with pink

Each keeps white paper and a green for checks; the pink of the bow tie runs through all four.

A Navy, coral & blush

Closest to now: coral stays the point; pink only for the bow tie and Clara.

B Navy & rose

Rose takes over from coral as the point -- softer, and it never reads as ‘wrong’.

C Ink & rose

Near-black like a chess set, rose and a sage green: the most grown-up.

D Navy, rose & brass

B, with the mouldings in brass -- the site’s own brand colour, like gilt picture rails.

A or B on a real page

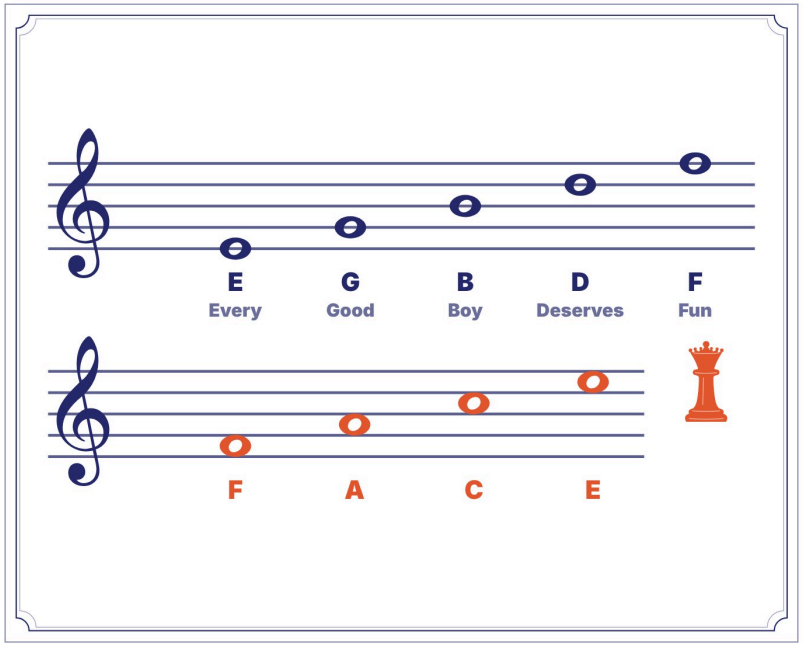

A keeps coral for the notes and the point; B turns them rose -- softer, and it never reads as 'wrong'.

STEP 2

Queensland

The Queen's land has two sayings. Her five lines, from the bottom, are E G B D F -- her favourite saying, Every Good Boy Deserves Fun. Her four spaces are F A C E: the Queen's FACE is hiding in her spaces. Line to line is a skip, so both sayings skip a letter each time.

At the piano

1. With your right hand, skip up the lines: E G B D F -- saying the words as you go. ☐
2. Now the spaces: F A C E -- "the Queen's FACE!" ☐
3. Just over the top line sits G; just under the bottom line is Chapter 4's D. ☐

REMEMBER Queensland: Every Good Boy Deserves Fun on the lines, the Queen's FACE in the spaces.
