Keyboard battleships

For two players. Each player secretly hides a fleet on the top keyboard: one ship of 4 white keys, one of 3 and two of 2, each on keys side by side. Take turns calling a key by letter and octave (“D4!”). Hit or miss? Mark the bottom keyboard: X for a hit, O for a miss. Sink the whole fleet to win.

Octave numbers: C4 is middle C. Every key from one C up to the next B shares its number: C4 D4 E4 F4 G4 A4 B4.

Harder: ships may sit on black keys too. Call them by either name, F♯3 or G♭3.

Hardest: call by interval only. “A 5th above your last call.”

Scale trains

Cut out the carriages along the dashed lines. Line them up behind the engine in scale order, starting on the key note. Then fix the train: write in every sharp or flat the scale needs.

Train 1

Which carriage needs a sharp or flat?

Train 2

Which carriage needs a sharp or flat?

Train 3

Which carriages need a sharp or flat?

Race

Two players, two sets of the same train. First to line up the scale correctly and play it on the piano wins the round.

Answers, upside down: ♯C B A G ♯F E D · E D C D E ♭B A G A B · F♯ E D C B A G

Spot the difference

The second tune was copied with five mistakes. Circle each one on the second staff, then write what changed. Play both tunes: can you hear every difference?

The original

The copy

| | BAR | WHAT CHANGED |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | | |
| 2 | | |
| 3 | | |
| 4 | | |
| 5 | | |

Your turn

Copy a line from a piece you know, with three mistakes hidden in it, and swap with a friend.

Answers, upside down:

bar 1: A became B · bar 2: F became F♯ · bar 3: D became E · bar 3: F became A · bar 4: the last G became E

Who am I?

Read each riddle and name the key. Then cut out the key signature cards and match each one to its riddle. Play the scale of every key you find.

1 I have one sharp, and I am major.

I am _____

2 I have one flat. My key note is a semitone above E.

I am _____

3 I have no sharps or flats, and I am minor.

I am _____

4 I have two sharps. My relative minor is B minor.

I am _____

5 I have two flats, and I am minor.

I am _____

6 I have three sharps, and I am major.

I am _____

Key signature cards

✂ cut along the lines

A

Frog hops

The frog hops along the white keys. Start on the given key and follow each hop, counting letter names (both ends included). Write the key it lands on after every hop: the letters spell a word.

1 START D — down a 2nd ☐ · up a 6th ☐ · down a 2nd ☐ · down a 3rd ☐

2 START C — down a 2nd ☐ · up a 4th ☐ · up a 4th ☐ · up a 4th ☐

3 START G — down a 2nd ☐ · up a 3rd ☐ · up a 3rd ☐ · up a 3rd ☐

4 START A — up a 2nd ☐ · down a 2nd ☐ · up a 4th ☐ · up a 4th ☐ · down a 3rd ☐

The words: 1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3 ☐ 4 ☐

Your turn

Make a frog route that spells BAG or EGG. Give it to a friend, then play each route on the piano and sing the notes.

Answers, upside down: ƎGDAB · ECAF · DAEB · ƎGAC
