My Composer Passport

Every song in this book was written by someone, somewhere. Each time you finish a lesson, your teacher stamps the circle (or you stick a sticker in it). Ten stamps, and you have met the people behind the music.

WHERE HAVE YOU HEARD IT?

Each song's Listening page plays the original: the symphony, the song, the band. Scan the code on the lesson's first page.

Stamped by your teacher when the song is played from beginning to end, both hands if the lesson asks for it, at turtle speed or faster. A country stamp means a folk song: nobody knows who first sang it.
